

Epitome : International Journal of Multidisciplinary Research

ISSN : 2395-6968

THE CULTURAL AND SOCIAL ISSUES IN AMIT CHAUDHURI'S A NEW WORLD

Mr. JAGADEESH KITTUR

Ph.D Research Scholar, Dept. of English
Karnatak University, Dharwad
Karnatak State

ABSTRACT

A New World is one of the best novels by Amit Chaudhuri. The paper is focused on the Cultural conflicts and Social issues in A New World. Jayojit Chatterjee is the protagonist of the novel. He loved a girl and married later settled in America but after a son was born he divorced her because she fell in love with a Gynecologist. Joyjit failed in family life but he got his son Vikram from custody in the summer holidays by the court order. Jayojit's father and mother cancelled their visit to America after knowing the divorce of Jayojit and Amala. Joyjit took his son Vikram to Calcutta to meet his parents and spend the summer vacation with them. Amit Chaudhuri highlights the cultural and social issues.

KEYWORDS

Culture, Tradition, Uncomfortable, Divorce, Marriage