ABSTRACT

The celebration of Manglagaur automatically creates attraction for every daughter-in-law for her maternal home. It is a very happiest moment in every married woman's life. All these games and songs aim at giving vent to the suppressed desires, emotions and sorrows of the young daughter-in laws who suffer at the hands at their in-laws. The tradition provides a kind of solace to a newly married girl who is yet to become habitual with the rules and regulations of the home of her in-laws.
